Detailed Feedback by Category

Thesis & Topic Understanding (5/10 points)

The essay lacks a clearly defined thesis statement. The topic is vaguely stated, promising a 'comprehensive test' but failing to deliver a focused argument.

Outline Quality (0/10 points)

No outline is present.

Structure & Coherence (5/15 points)

The essay attempts a basic structure but lacks clear transitions and logical progression between ideas. Paragraphs are underdeveloped and lack supporting evidence.

Content Depth, Balance & Relevance (8/20 points)

The content is superficial, making general claims without providing substantial analysis or supporting evidence. The essay lacks depth and specific examples.

Language Proficiency & Expression (7/15 points)

Language is grammatically correct, but the expression lacks precision and sophistication. The writing is descriptive rather than analytical.

Critical Thinking & Analytical Reasoning (0/5 points)

The essay demonstrates no critical thinking or analytical reasoning. Claims are asserted without justification or evaluation of different perspectives.

Conclusion (0/10 points)

The essay lacks a concluding paragraph, summarizing main points or offering final thoughts.

Word Count & Length Control (8/15 points)

The essay is significantly below the required word count (approximately 799 words) resulting in a substantial deduction.

Overall Summary

This essay is a weak attempt at fulfilling the requirements of the CSS examination. The lack of a clear thesis, underdeveloped content, absence of an outline, and insufficient word count result in a failing grade. The writing demonstrates some basic competency in English grammar but lacks depth of analysis and critical engagement with the subject matter.

Examiner Remarks

Strengths:

• Grammatically correct sentences.

Areas for Improvement:

• Lack of thesis statement, insufficient word count, underdeveloped content, absence of an outline, no critical analysis, no conclusion.

Suggestions:

• Develop a clear and focused thesis statement. Create a detailed outline before writing. Conduct thorough research to support your arguments with evidence. Incorporate critical thinking and analysis. Expand on the content, providing specific examples and in-depth analysis. Add a strong concluding paragraph that summarizes main points and offers concluding remarks.
